

C o p y

University of California
Museum of Anthropology

CENSUS OFFICE
GEOGRAPHER
REC'D NOV 21 1912
ANS'D

Affiliated Colleges,
San Francisco, California.
November 7, 1912.

Mr. F. W. Hodge,
Ethnologist-in-Charge,
Bureau of American Ethnology,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Hodge:

I have just come across your letter of September 14, which, owing to the appearance of the envelope, had been placed with a batch of printed mail matter and therefore remained unopened for over a month.

The word ~~Y~~ Bally means mountain in the Wintun language. Yallo Bally stands for Wintun yolo boli, meaning snow mountain. The o in Wintun is open or broad and therefore well represented by English a before ll as in all.

Sincerely yours,

(signed) A. L. Kroeber